

MARCH 11-17, 2018

Open government is good government.

It's Sunshine Week, the annual celebration of open government, and we call you to action! Whether it's access to public documents or admission to public meetings, it is your right to know how our public officials are making decisions that affect us all. To find out your rights and learn more about South Carolina's open government laws, check out our Citizen's Guide to the Freedom of Information Act. It's available for free at scpress.org/citizen.

It's your right!
