

SUNSHINE

on our government
is for the people,
not the press.

March 12-18 is Sunshine Week, the annual celebration of open government. Whether it's access to public documents or admission to public meetings, it is your right to know how public business is conducted. Demand transparency.

