

WHEN PUBLIC NOTICES REACH THE PUBLIC, EVERYONE BENEFITS.

SOUTH CAROLINA PUBLIC NOTICES

This website is a public service made possible by the newspapers of South Carolina at no additional cost to taxpayers. SCPublicNotices.com was launched in 2018 as a central repository for all legal public notices in the Palmetto State. This easy-to-use site is designed to help citizens and businesses that want to know more about the actions of local, county and state government and the courts. Public notices are accessible 24 hours a day, free of charge and in one convenient location.

PLEASE NOTE:
Every state in our nation, including South Carolina, has laws that regulate the manner in which legal ads (public notices) are published. These laws are designed to ensure that people within a community receive important information about the actions of their government and courts. Local newspapers remain the approved venue to distribute public notices. This website is funded and maintained by S.C. newspapers, the trusted source for all community news and information. For more information about public notice/legal advertising in South Carolina, visit scpress.org.

Public notices tell you what is being done by your government and in your courts. It's your right to know when there's a zoning change, public hearing or election coming up. Do you want to know when a bar or strip club is opening in your neighborhood or if your property is auctioned off? These are just a few types of public notices that are required to run in S.C. newspapers.

There's no better way to notify the public than through the combination of S.C. newspapers and SCPublicNotices.com... the permanency of print paired with the accessibility of a statewide, searchable site.

Public notices/legal ads from virtually all S.C. newspapers are now available online in one convenient location.

This service is provided by S.C. newspapers at no cost to taxpayers.
