

WHEN PUBLIC NOTICES REACH THE PUBLIC, EVERYONE BENEFITS.

The screenshot shows the SCPublicNotices.com website. At the top, there are navigation links for "About Public Notices" and "Help". The main header reads "SOUTH CAROLINA PUBLIC NOTICES". Below this, a descriptive paragraph states: "This website is a public service made possible by the newspapers of South Carolina at no additional cost to taxpayers. SCPublicNotices.com was launched in 2018 as a central repository for all legal public notices in the Palmetto State. This easy-to-use site is designed to help citizens and businesses that want to know more about the actions of local, county and state government and the courts. Public notices are accessible 24 hours a day, free of charge and in one convenient location." The interface includes a search bar with a "POPULAR SEARCHES" dropdown, a "SEARCH KEYWORDS:" input field, and radio buttons for "All Words", "Any Words", and "Exact Phrase". There is also an "EXCLUDE:" input field and a "FILTERED BY:" section with filters for "COUNTY", "CITY/TOWN", "PUBLICATION", and "DATE RANGE" (5/25/2018 to 7/26/2018). A "RESET" button and a search icon are at the bottom of the filter section. Three featured images are shown: "THIS SITE" (a person at a laptop), "WHY PUBLIC NOTICES" (a woman reading a newspaper), and "SMART SEARCH SIGN UP NOW" (a hand clicking a button).

Public notices tell you what is being done by your government and in your courts. It's your right to know when there's a zoning change, public hearing or election coming up. Do you want to know when a bar or strip club is opening in your neighborhood or if your property is auctioned off? These are just a few types of public notices that are required to run in S.C. newspapers.

There's no better way to notify the public than through the combination of S.C. newspapers and SCPublicNotices.com... the permanency of print paired with the accessibility of a statewide, searchable site.

Public notices/legal ads from virtually all S.C. newspapers are now available online in one convenient location.

This service is provided by S.C. newspapers at no cost to taxpayers.
